

Lighting Control - Junior Technician

- Technical Lighting Integration role within the C-Bus, Dali, or other Systems
- Market leading innovative company offering career progression
- Extensive product and systems training on offer

Supporting and learning in the provision of integrated intelligent automated lighting control solutions for commercial and government facilities including C-Bus, Dali and other control platforms.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Installation of programming software and product configuration.
- Supporting on site commissioning and testing of automation systems and field devices
- Supporting Integration of various control systems based largely around C-Bus and Dali
- System support, troubleshooting and servicing work
- Keeping up to date with automation system technology, integration solutions and data networks and industry trends

Technical Skills:

- A good practical background or qualification such as Electrical, HVAC, Lighting Control etc
- Proficient with computers, operating systems and software with some understanding of IT networks
- Able to deal confidently with a wide cross section of individuals and entities
- The ability to absorb technical system / product knowledge
- A high standard of written and oral communication
- Able to problem-solve and have a professional approach to work
- Some Experience in C-Bus or Dali communication protocols and systems

Experience/Attitude:

Ideally we are looking for candidates to be based in Melbourne and Sydney and possess the following skills:

- 3-5 years technical experience within the Electrical or Lighting industries
- Self-motivated, honest, hardworking, experienced & technically minded
- Loyal, ambitious and have a real passion for Learning, Energy & Automation